

OXYNOIZ

DIGITAL DISTRIBUTION AGREEMENT

Non-exclusive licence for digital music distribution

Contract number		Version
Effective date		Rights Holder
Stage name		Release

INFORMATION COPY - NOT FOR SIGNATURE. This non-personalised document allows prospective artists to review OXYNOIZ's standard contractual terms before submitting a release. The final agreement is generated only after acceptance and contains the confirmed artist, release and commercial information.

The Rights Holder retains ownership of the Release. OXYNOIZ receives only the non-exclusive rights required to distribute, promote and account for it under this Agreement.

1. Parties and purpose

This Agreement is entered into between OXYNOIZ (the "Label") and [to be completed] (the "Rights Holder"), acting for the artistic project [to be completed]. It defines the conditions under which the Label may distribute, promote and commercially exploit the Release identified in Schedule A.

2. Grant of rights and ownership

The Rights Holder grants the Label a non-exclusive, worldwide licence, for the duration of this Agreement, to reproduce as technically necessary, deliver, distribute, stream, download, promote and commercially exploit the Release through legitimate digital service providers and distribution channels selected by the Label.

The Label may transmit the recordings, metadata, artwork and promotional materials to distributors and platforms, collect the resulting revenues, and make reasonable technical corrections required for platform compliance. No ownership of copyright or neighbouring rights is transferred; all rights not expressly granted remain with the Rights Holder.

3. Rights Holder warranties and responsibility

The Rights Holder represents and warrants that they own or control all rights necessary to enter into this Agreement; that the Release does not infringe any copyright, trademark, privacy, publicity or other third-party right; and that all samples, vocals, performances, loops and other third-party material have been lawfully cleared.

The Rights Holder is responsible for providing licences, purchase receipts or permissions upon request and shall indemnify the Label against claims, damages, reasonable fees or proceedings arising from a breach of these warranties.

4. Artificial intelligence

The Rights Holder warrants that the submitted musical work is an original human creation and has not been entirely generated by artificial intelligence.

Artificial intelligence may be used as an assistive tool during creation or production, including audio restoration, mixing assistance, mastering assistance or comparable technical support, provided that the Rights Holder remains the primary creator and holds all rights required for exploitation.

OXYNOIZ may reject or remove any Release that it reasonably considers to be predominantly or entirely generated by artificial intelligence, or whose rights cannot be satisfactorily verified.

5. Delivery and release timeline

The Rights Holder shall deliver complete and accurate metadata, artwork and audio files in WAV format (44.1 or 48 kHz; 16 or 24 bit), mastered or unmastered as agreed. The Label may request corrections before delivery.

Subject to complete delivery, platform acceptance and scheduling availability, the Label will use commercially reasonable efforts to publish the Release approximately four to five weeks after completion of the contractual and technical requirements. The Label does not guarantee platform acceptance, editorial placement, availability or commercial success.

6. Revenue, statements and payment

Net Revenue means amounts actually received by the Label from exploitation of the Release after distributor deductions, taxes, refunds, payment processing charges and mandatory third-party fees. Net Revenue shall be divided according to Schedule A.

Royalty statements will be made available every six months. Payment may be requested once the Artist's payable balance reaches the minimum threshold in Schedule A and will be made using the stated payment method. The Rights Holder is responsible for providing accurate payment information and for any receiving fees or taxes applicable to them.

7. Term, renewal, takedown and termination

This Agreement enters into force on the Effective Date for the initial term stated in Schedule A. At the end of that term, it will renew automatically for the successive renewal periods stated in Schedule A unless either Party gives written notice of non-renewal within the notice period stated in Schedule A.

A change to the term, renewal period or notice period affects only future agreements unless both Parties expressly accept a written amendment to an existing Agreement.

The Rights Holder may request removal of a track, EP or album. The fee stated in Schedule A applies per track, including when removal results from a breach attributable to the Rights Holder. Platform processing times remain outside the Label's control.

The Label may suspend, reject, remove or terminate distribution without compensation where the Release breaches this Agreement, applicable law, distributor or platform policies, or creates a material legal, reputational or operational risk. Accrued undisputed royalties remain payable subject to lawful deductions and platform adjustments.

8. Platform compliance and fraud prevention

The Rights Holder shall not buy or generate artificial streams, followers, listeners, playlist placements or other fraudulent activity. Prohibited conduct also includes falsely claiming third-party content, misleading metadata, impersonation, generic deceptive titles, random MIDI or loop-based uploads lacking genuine artistic intent, and content prohibited by distributors.

If a distributor or platform imposes a penalty, withholding, removal cost or charge because of conduct attributable to the Rights Holder, the Label may deduct that amount from sums otherwise payable, without prejudice to other remedies.

9. Data, liability and final provisions

Personal data supplied for this Agreement will be used for contract administration, distribution, accounting, compliance and communication, and may be shared with service providers where necessary for those purposes.

The Label shall not be liable for platform outages, rejection, delayed processing, lost editorial opportunities or indirect losses beyond its reasonable control. If any provision is held invalid, the remainder remains effective. Any amendment must be agreed in writing by both Parties. This Agreement and Schedule A constitute the entire agreement concerning the Release.
